NEXUS ADVISORY

The Good Blokes Society together with Balmain Sports Medicine are pleased to invite you to our inaugural GOLF DAY.

Friday the 26th of February, we look forward to presenting all of our fabulous clients and friends with a morning round of golf on one of Sydney's premier golf courses. The day will begin with breakfast, followed by a round of golf. To top off the day you will enjoy a lunch event with guest speakers and entertainment.

This event will serve as the perfect opportunity to show appreciation to your most valued clients as well as spoiling yourself.

On the day we will proudly continue our support of Prostate Cancer of Australia.

We look forward to seeing you on the golf course ...
